

From Every Nation

“... before me was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne” Rev 7:9

Global

- Every day approx 40,000 people across the globe come to faith in Christ.
- An average of 3,500 new churches open every week around the world.
- Evangelicals numbered 89 million (2.9%) in 1960, but by 2010 they were 546 million (7.9%)!

Turkey

One-third of the converts to Christianity in Turkey say they came to Christ because He appeared to them in a dream. God is at work even where there are no missionaries!

Israel / Jews

More Jews have embraced Jesus / Yeshua as Messiah since 1967 when the Jews took control of Jerusalem than in all the years between 100 AD and 1967. Check out Luke 21:24!

Iran

More Iranians came to Christ between 1980 and 2010 than the previous 1,000 years combined.

China

In 1950, when China closed to missionaries, there were about one million Chinese believers. Today some estimate over 75 million believers and over 10,000 new Christians in China every day! There are more followers of Christ in China than in North America.

Korea

Once deemed "impossible to penetrate" by missionaries, Korea has experienced dramatic church growth in the last century. Today Korea is 30% Christian with over 3,000 churches in Seoul alone. Several of these churches have over one million members each.

Nepal

In the early 1980s there were only 75 known Nepali believers. Today there are an estimated 850,000 believers. From almost no churches 20 years ago to nearly 10,000 churches and house fellowships today.

India

In east India many of Nagaland's three million people confess Jesus as Lord. The Nagaland church recently vowed to send out 10,000 new missionaries to India and beyond. Those once unreached are now becoming senders.

Afghanistan

Until very recently becoming a Christian was close to a death sentence. Now missionaries in Kabul report unprecedented openness and many new believers in the last several years.

Southern Sudan

In 1960 only about 5% of southern Sudan was Christian. Today, after decades of terrible warfare and persecution, the primary religion in South Sudan is Christianity.

Brazil

From 2 million in 1960 to 51.2 million in 2010, now one of the largest evangelical populations in the world. Over 100 mission agencies have emerged, sending over 2,000 Brazilian missionaries to 85 countries.
