Bahraini Arabs in Oman

The Bahraini Arabs believe their ancestry goes back to Ishmael, the son of Abraham and Hagar, his wife's maid. They are the largest people group in Bahrain, which includes over 30 desert islands in the heart of the Persian Gulf. Some of them have migrated to Oman, another small nation on the Arabian Peninsula where the local people are solidly Muslim.

Ministry Obstacles

Bahraini Arabs have seen the excesses of Western "Christian" culture and they want to distance themselves from it.

Outreach Ideas

Television and radio programs in their dialect of Arabic could serve to reach them about Christ. By being kind and sensitive we can slowly improve the Bahraini Arabs' view of Jesus' followers.

Prayer Focus

With only a tiny percent of them being followers of Christ, we must pray for them to stay strong and to live their lives for Jesus. Pray for the Bahraini Arabs to have open hearts to the
