Zekara Berber in Morocco

The Berbers lived in North Africa long before the arrival of the Arabs and Islam, and had a Christian heritage. Between the 11th and 13th centuries two great Berber dynasties - the Almoravids and the Almohads - controlled large parts of Spain, as well as north-west Africa. In Morocco, about 40% acknowledge a Berber identity, though many more have Berber ancestry. Many Berber children drop out of school because they are taught in what to them is a foreign language - Arabic.

Ministry Obstacles

The Berbers have been removed from the Christian faith for many centuries, and are not likely to quickly embrace the ways of Christ.

Outreach Ideas

Christians need to find ways to build friendships and trust with the ancient Berber peoples.
