Jordanian Arabs in Jordan

The lifestyles of Jordanian Arabs are mixed. A minority are highly educated and serve in the highest levels of society. A growing middle-class work in businesses, factories, in education, and as government employees. Unfortunately, most live at the poverty level. They work in agricultural on land owned by others, as day laborers, and as herdsmen. Family is an essential part of Jordanian Arabs lives. Extended families often live and work together. Jordanian women are freer and better educated than in most Arab Muslim countries.

Ministry Obstacles

Like members of religious groups all over the world, Jordanian Muslims equate “Christianity” with a worldwide political system. It will be difficult to get them to focus on Jesus Christ.

Outreach Ideas

There are traditional Christians among the Jordanians that could be witnesses of Christ’s grace to the Muslims if they would humbly and lovingly approach them as Christ’s ambassadors.

Prayer Focus

Pray that the believers in Jordan get a vision and burden to share the good news with their neighbors. Pray for a Disciple Making Movement among the Jordanian Arabs in this decade. Ask the Lord to make the Jordanian Arabs into a ripe harvest field in the kingdom of God.

SCRIPTURE When the earth quakes and its people live in turmoil, I am the one who keeps its foundations firm. Ps 75:3

PRAY that many from today’s people group will allow Him to be their firm foundation in times of trouble.
