Moors in Mauritania

The Moors are very proud people, conveying a sense of superiority to others in the area. Within their society, the Koran is faithfully followed. The term "Moor" is generally applied to any person, regardless of skin color, who speaks one of the Hassaniya dialects.

Ministry Obstacles

Scripture has limited availability in the language of the Moors, and access to the Moors is limited.

Prayer Focus

Pray for believers to sow God's Word among their own families and communities to fuel a movement of God's blessings spreading from household to household. Pray for the relatively few believers among the Moors, that they may be like-minded, being one in spirit and purpose, looking not only to their own interests but also to the interests of others. Pray each individual in the Moor community may be prepared
