Paliya in Bangladesh

The Hindu Paliya living in Bangladesh are considered a “disadvantaged” caste. They are not considered Dalit or untouchables, but their status is not much higher. They are mainly agricultural workers, and many are landless.

Ministry Obstacles

Since they are not well educated, they need to hear the gospel in oral form. Since Hinduism is their religion, they worship a pantheon of gods, always trying to gain merit and favor. It is a hopeless cycle that keeps them away from the only savior.

Outreach Ideas

They need to hear of the one true God and His Son Jesus Christ who died for them so that they could be forgiven from sin and live in the company of the redeemed forever! The Paliya should respond to such a hopeful and encouraging story of God’s great love for them. They should feel esteemed and cherished to hear this truth.

Pray for the Entire People Group

Pray for a spiritual hunger that will drive the Paliya into the arms of Jesus. Pray for workers who are filled
