Judeo-Persian Jews in Iran

Jewish people have been in Iran since the days of Queen Esther! According to the chief rabbi of the Jewish community in Iran, Garami, the Iranian government is currently allowing the Jewish people of Iran to worship in peace. The rabbi also stressed that Jews are safe in Iran. Their schools, estimated 35 synagogues, cultural centers, kosher stores, and restaurants are found primarily in Tehran and other big cities such as Isfahan and Shiraz. To keep the peace, Iranian Jews are cautious not to show any support for Israel as they could face severe fines, torture and imprisonment from the Iranian government.

Ministry Obstacles

To maintain their peace and freedom to worship and live without oppression, the Iranian Jewish people are keeping an isolated position from Iranian believers; so they have little or no contact with those who can share the Savior.

Outreach Ideas

Hopefully Iranian believers will have the courage and faith to seek friendship with their Jewish neighbors as strong living witnesses of the Lord and his promises.

Prayer Focus

Pray for a movement to Christ among Iran's Jewish population, leading them to the spiritual blessings only offered by Jesus Christ. Pray for a willingness to seek and find their Messiah in the Torah.

SCRIPTURE We acknowledge our wickedness, Lord, and the guilt of our ancestors; we have indeed sinned against you. Jer 14:20

PRAY that soon leaders among this people group will repent of their sins and lead others to do the same.
